

CW5(R) Eddie Mallard
LFSC Presidential Nomination

CW5(R) Mallard is native of Ludowici, Georgia, and upon graduation from Walker High School, enlisted in the U.S. Army. He has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Law Enforcement/ Political Science. He has completed numerous scientific and technical courses .

Eddie has served in a variety of key operational and staff assignments as a DoD Special Agent, Defense Investigative Service; Special Agent in Charge, Military School Instructor and Detachment CDR, in various tactical and strategic locations. Mallard retired after 42 years of Active US Army service on 31 July 2009, as the 1st Command Chief Warrant Officer (CCWO) for the US Army Intelligence and Security Command, Fort Belvoir, VA in 2009

Mallard has taught as a certified Literacy Instructor for the State of California and college professor for Central Texas College. He volunteered as a baseball and softball umpire and basketball referee. He previously participated in and supervised a volunteer staff at Jack Kent Cook (Redskins) Stadium for Unlimited Possibilities, a non-profit organization that provide services for disadvantage children. He has received distinguished service awards from the Fraternal Order of Police, MD. CW5 Mallard has enriched his life and the lives of others by providing parental guidance as licensed foster and adoptive parents for more than 15 years. He and Mrs. Mallard have nurtured 42 children in their home. They have received the Meritorious Service Certificate for ten years of outstanding service to the community from the Governor of the State of Maryland; the Outstanding Foster Parents of the Year; Volunteers of the year by the Prince George's County Foster Parents Association; the Army Community Services at Fort Meade, Schofield Barracks, Fort Shafter, and Fort Belvoir.

Eddie serves as the Director/Treasurer USAWOA Scholarship Committee; Veterans Administration FOP FD2A Scholarship Committee; Southbridge Covenant Committee and is a member of the American Legion.

Mallard's awards and decorations include the Distinguish Service Medal; Meritorious Service Medal; Joint Service Commendation Medal; Army Commendation Medal; Army Achievement Medal and Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal (1st OLC).

Eddie is married to the former Betty Wagner (CW2R). They have six children (Army MAJ/ SFC) and five grandchildren (Army CPT/ Navy CPO) and 2 great grandchildren. His hobbies include bowling, fishing, cooking, racquetball and woodwork.